Dedication

Twelve years it is now, and still but yesterday it seems
You started joyfully through school, and filled its halls with dreams
With promise of graduation, the twelve years were as but play
When you started out your education with hearts both light and gay.

Your skies were bright with promise, and now you take a bow,
For you stayed on the road that led you to where you're standing now.
You gaze at what your life has been, and joy will fill your heart
Because you know you've labored well; your schooling was your start.

As you passed examinations, many a task was pressed
Into your loaded schedule; often you sighed for rest
When your studies seemed unending and no comforting refrain
Came through the days of sorrow when your skies were dark with rain.

Twelve years it is—the shadows fall on well remembered ways,
We only hope you'll ne'er forget the joys of high school days.
The ball games that we won and lost, the parties that we've had—
We hope the very thought of them will always make you glad.

Twelve years it is—the skies are now smiling and serene
As you start out on the path of life, your future yet unseen.
To you, then, honored seniors, this book is dedicated To let you know how very high your class with us is rated.

Those active in Junior Band were Joan Anderson, Noel Boettcher, Charles Hoiness, Kathy Hoiness, Dianne Jacobson, Janell Jertson, Sharon Matson, Jack Piehn, Rick Reburn, Wally Trouten, Roger Shrock, Judy Steinbeck and Bill Wickett. A few students were in Beginner's Band and several participated in declam. Bill Wickett served as Student Council representative for his class. Those who were on the "C" basketball team were Charles Berning, Charles Hoiness, Tommy Broadwater, Jack Piehn, Jerry Heibel, Jed Thorson, Bill Wickett, Roger Shrock, Jerry Willford and David Fossum. The class was aided in their activities by their advisors, Miss Patzner and Mr. Harms. After this year's many experiences, they are ready and eager to take over the privilege of being eighth graders.

The sixty-six energetic eighth graders have had a very busy and happy year. They have taken part in many extra-curricular activities. Some of them are in junior and senior band, a few took part in the declam contest and many of the boys went out for "C" and "B" teams in basketball. Last fall everyone worked hard on their Homecoming float, "Rock the Bluejays" and became the proud winners of second prize. In February the class welcomed four new students, Kathy Vold, Alfred Lehmkuhl, and Janice and Lola John. The class is anxious and enthusiastic to begin school next fall as freshmen.

The "frisky frosh" have done everything well this past year. Sharon Malli, Betsey Haugerud, and Bonnie Brokken were junior cheerleaders, while many of the boys were members of the football and basketball squads. Gerald Evenson was also on the Varsity team in basketball during the tournaments. Many of us belonged to band, chorus, glee club, and other musical groups. We sponsored a farewell party for the seniors and gave an assembly for the junior high. Nancy McKay was our member on the paper and annual staff. Everything we did was very successful and we're going to try to make our sophomore year even better.

The first big project of the sophomore class was Homecoming which included a bonfire, crowning of the king and queen, the snakedance, and the parade. We danced to the Mello Macs after the game. Many participated in extra-curricular activities. There were 14 in chorus and eight in band. Kathy Stork was an "A"-team cheerleader. Sharon Ryan was a majorette and Evelyn Peterson a twirler. Several boys were in football and basketball. Nearly all the girls were in glee club. Many took part in declam work. We also sponsored a school party which was enjoyed by all. These are some of the things we have done this year. Altogether they have helped to make this year a successful one.

This has really been a busy year for the members of the junior class. We started off the year by doing everything we possibly could to raise money for our junior prom. Last fall we all enjoyed putting on our junior class play, which was very successful. We also ordered our class rings in the fall. Of course we think they are just the greatest and the best Harmony High has ever seen. We put on our prom May 10, which was the biggest event of the school year for both juniors and seniors. This was an occasion that we will never forget. We all are thrilled that our prom was so successful. This year we have lost a few classmates, but we also gained four new ones. They are, Sharon Vold. Gale Burkholder, Gary Every and Larry Houdek. We will always remember our junior year as a wonderful year — filled with many memories.

SPORTS IN REVIEW

The Harmony Eleven turned in a well-played and a hard-fought season of football, but settled for a fifth place tie with Wykoff. The Cards Homecoming was spoiled by the Preston Blue Jays as they took a 40-21 victory. The season ended with the Cards winning four and losing three. Harold Christensen and Robert Love received District One All-Conference honors, and Jim Berning received honorable mention. John Glesne is football coach.

The basketball season got underway December 6, with Caledonia coming out on top of the Cards 61-53. Harmony took part in a holiday tournament at Mabel during Christmas vacation, in which they lost the first game to Preston 44-42 and won over Canton 38-46, in the second game to take the consolation trophy. The Cards ended the season with 7 wins and 11 losses. The Cards were defeated by Lanesboro in their first District One tournament game. Karl Ahrens is basketball coach.

There were only a few lettermen returning for the '58 baseball team. There were a large number of new team members, however. With such veterans as R. McKay, R. Pederson, E. Bigalk, and J. Berning returning, the season's outlook appears quite good. John Glesne is baseball coach.

For the second year, the Cardinals sponsored a track team. This year's track team had many good prospects with a large number of boys coming out. Karl Ahrens is track coach.

To the right of the shoe is a black record player with a Decca record on the turntable. In the bottom left, three more records are stacked, with the top one labeled "GROOVE". A glass bottle is partially visible on the right side.

Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday you hear, from the bandroom, the voices of sixty senior chorus members under the direction of Mr. Gordon Peterson. Highlighting the year's appearances was the impressive Christmas program. The robed singers entered the auditorium in a candlelight processional singing "O Come, All Ye Faithful." Listening to and seeing the famed Luther College Choir, at a vocal clinic in Mabel, under the direction of Mr. Weston Noble, was a very special treat for chorus personnel. The chorus participated, along with others from the schools of the surrounding area, at the vocal contest held in Spring Grove. Also, at the small group contest, several vocal ensembles participated from Harmony. Among their many other activities, the chorus contributed to the music of the Sunday morning services in the various churches around Harmony. The High School Chorus is a very worthwhile organization as its members learn how to appreciate music and get along with others,

The Junior Class Play, a three-act mystery, entitled, "The Ten Little Indians", was presented on November 14th and 15th. The play was directed by Mr. James Jacobson. The play opened on a deserted island off the coast of England. Ten people from the English mainland received letters from a mysterious Mr. Owen inviting them to spend a brief vacation at his island home. Soon it was revealed that they were trapped on the island with no way of escape. The host Mr. Owen, who was later discovered to be Mr. Wargrave, had plotted the murder of the others. His plan went smoothly until there were only two guests left—Vera Clathorn and Philip Lombard found out Wargrave's crime and managed to dispose of him. The play ended with Lombard and Miss Clathorn living happily ever after. The cast was as follows:

Philip Lombard	Ken Christensen
Vera Clathorn	Jo Ann Bergey
Lawrence Wargrave	Ralph Hettig
Dr. Armstrong	Jim Brokken
General Mackenzie	Jim Berning
William Blow	Dave Bigalk
Anthony Marston	Richard Pederson
Emily Brent	Ardath Masters

"The Curious Savage" was given by the seniors on April 11, 1958. It was directed by Mr. James Jacobsen. The setting of the play was "The Cloisters"—a home for the mentally disturbed. The plot centered around Mrs. Ethel Savage whose husband had died, leaving her a large estate. In order to help others to have the foolish things they wanted, she established the John Savage Memorial Fund. She was brought to "The Cloisters" because her children thought she was out of her mind. While she was there, the children tried their best to recover their share of the estate. After many laughs, and to the audience's delight, Mrs. Savage was triumphant and retained her estate. The cast was as follows:

Ethel Savage	Ethyl Mae Boettcher
Florence	Rosalie Bigalk
Hannibal	Rockne Reburn
Fairy Mae	Janet Stork
Jeffrey	Jon Armstrong
Mrs. Paddy	Virginia Moore
Titus	Harold Christensen
Samuel	Richard Lee

Editor Joyce Watson, assistant editor Kathy Grebin, and advisor Miss Nottestad, together with a complete staff, have been successful in putting out eight issues of the CARDEON this year. The staff consists of reporters, sports writers, typists, proofreaders, stencilists, and mimeographers. The floating editor adds spice to the paper with comments on questions which she asks many members of the school. The exchange editor sends copies of our CARDEON to surrounding schools in exchange for their school paper. Everyone will agree that the staff has done a fine job.

Each year as the CARDINAL is being published, Harmony High School students watch and wait eagerly. "What is it going to be like?" "When can we get them?" These are questions that the co-editors, Margaret McCabe and Janet Young, and advisor Miss Nottestad, have often heard during the past months. Much hard work has been put into the 1958 CARDINAL by a very fine staff. The large group pictures, senior pictures and class pictures were photographed by Edstrom Studio from Winona. Mr. Thoma and several students must be given credit for many small snapshots. Even though at times things did not seem to go as planned, our CARDINAL is again a success.
